

CODE OF CONDUCT of

Warm Springs Youth Council

Members of the Warm Springs Youth Council must adhere to the Code of Conduct to be defined, but not inclusive:

- Be respectful to yourself and others.
- Be responsible to those duties in your positions of the WarmSprings Youth Council, and to be responsible in your every day actions and to lead and serve by example.
- Professional conduct and behaviors are that we members of the Warm Springs Youth Council be prepared and mindful and carry ourselves in a high standard, in how we dress and carry ourselves, one is expected to be an exemplary individual in everyday life and to maintain a healthy lifestyle that would be expected for and by all.
- We are to be accepting and understanding to have an open and positive mind set. Willing to learn, and actively listen.
- We are to actively encourage community awareness and involvement.
- We are expected to stay present in our meetings.
- Our interactions with others should be of equal standing.