

Tomorrow's LEADERS don't have to wait. You can start shaping our community TODAY. We are looking for dedicated, talented individuals who want to make a difference in the community of Warm Springs for our youth and future generations.

Advantages of participation:

- Leadership role for future applications including college and resume.
- Meeting peers who are interested in making a difference in the community of Warm Springs.
- Gain leadership skills through trainings and active participation.
- Create change in the community of Warm Springs.
- Have fun!

Requirements:

- Be Native American and a resident of the community of Warm Springs.
- Be youth between the ages of 14-24.
- To maintain membership in good standing, attend at least half of the scheduled meetings annually.
- If you are a student, have good attendance and on track to graduate.

The Warm Springs Youth Council (WSYC) was established in April 2014 with the goal of empowering youth voices. Connect with us on Facebook (www.WarmSpringsYouthCouncil.org) or on Twitter (@CTWSYouth).

As per the Warm Springs Youth Council Constitution and Bylaws, all individuals wishing to participate on the council must fill out a membership application.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Alyssa Macy, Advisor, at alyssa.macy@wstribes.org.
