Warm Springs Tribal Code, Chapter 20 (Ordinance No. 44)

To review full tribal code, visit: <https://warmsprings-nsn.gov/bchapter/chapter-20-elections/>

8. Election Boards. For each election, the Tribal Council shall appoint an election board for each polling place, the election board to be composed of the following officials: (1) Three members of the election board. (2) One alternate member of the election board. (3) One interpreter. The Tribal council will appoint one of the three members as the Chairman of the Election Board and in the event that any of the three members of the election board shall be unable to serve or shall resign, then the alternate shall replace any such member.

10. Eligibility for Membership to Election and Counting Boards. All members of the election boards and counting boards shall be members of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, and shall not be appointed to such positions in an election where they are a candidate for election or where they may personally have an interest in the election different from the interests of the membership at large.

11. Duties of Election Boards. It shall be the duty of the election board to supervise the election at the voting place where they are designated to serve. The Chief Statistician shall furnish to the election board an up-to-date voter list showing the district in which each of the voters is entitled to vote and insofar as the election board is concerned such voter list shall be final. The Election Board shall insure that all persons whose names are shown on the voter list shall have an opportunity to vote in the district where they are registered and that no persons whose names are not on the voting list for that district shall vote.
