To All Students (NEW AND CONTINUING):

This year the 2019-20 CTWS Tribal Scholarship Packets will be available to you online.

1) Go to CTWS website: https://warmsprings-nsn.gov/program/higher-education-3/ or hhtp://bit.ly/WSHigherEd
2) Scroll to bottom of page for online forms
3) Click on the Tribal Scholarship Application
4) Print application, complete and submit to Higher Education
5) If you plan on completing/typing your name on the application online you will be agreeing to follow and maintain the tribal scholarship guidelines/requirements.

Please read the guidelines carefully and make sure applications are filled out completely and legibly. Incomplete and illegible applications will be returned to student applicant.

To supplement the tribal scholarship budget and due to budget constraints within the Tribal Organization, please note that

a)   you are required to apply and submit a free application for federal student aid (FAFSA) (http://wwwfafsa.ed.gov)
b)   This is especially important in light of the fact that the Tribal Scholarship (Tuition, Books and Educational Living Expenses) Funding may decrease in the future due to tuition increases and the increase in students graduating from high school.
c)   The Tribal Scholarship is not intended to cover all educational expenses. It is expected that students will contribute to the cost of attending college by applying for at least five other scholarship.
d)   Complete all you're below 100 level classes – The tribal scholarship no longer pays for below 100 level classes.

The Higher Education staff is committed to helping you in any way possible to make your transition to college life easier and to ensure successful completion. Success depends on your commitment to cooperate and communicate with us.

If you have any questions please call 541-553-3311.

Sincerely,

Carroll Dick
