Meetings shall be held at the time and place specified by the president or person calling such meeting.

Regularly scheduled meetings may be called by the president or the board of directors or any other member of the board of directors. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any three members of the board of directors. The notice of the meeting shall be delivered to each person entitled to receive notice of the meeting. The notice shall state the time and place of the meeting; the number of directors to be elected; the purposes of the meeting; and the matters to be considered at the meeting. Any director may be present at the meeting. The meetings shall be managed and conducted by the board of directors.

Any director may be removed or prepare a written statement of the reasons for the removal.

The president, in the absence of the board of directors, shall act as chairman of the board of directors.

The board of directors shall
